Peeved that your friends have been calling you "Dead Eyes"? Then this session might be for you. Learn how to make your eyes subtly stand out with this powdery make-up tip.

Special guest speaker Patrick Rothfuss shares tips on mastering an unruly beard. Got a bird's nest under your chin? This session is for you! (Bring your own mousse!)

Really beef up your fighting game with this combat sport exercise in which you will throw punches at the air as though you have an opponent.

Do you find clarity confining? Too strict and regimented? Well then come to our session on finding the middle ground in all situations. Or not. Whatever.

Is your cable internet too quiet? Then join us to learn how to refurbish modulator-demodulator ("modem") devices. These (literally!) screech and scream out at speeds of 1200, 4800, and even 9600 baud!

Come subject yourself to group eyeglass evaluation. In this morning's session, we'll (constructively!) critique style, color, and shape of the frames that will help you look your best.

One step is all it takes to move beyond indecision. Come join us to learn how to make judgements with conviction. Breakout sessions in groups of 12. (Must clear room immed. after session for Patrick Rothfuss.)

Audience dozing off during your Prezi slide presentation? Maybe it's your boring bullets. Round? That's so 2020. See how to replace dull round bullets with dashes, squares, or even kittens!

Are you feeling overwhelmed with life's many dimensions? Get enlightened by learning this 2d art form that will allow you to make dogs, birds, crocodiles (and more) using just your two hands with a lamp in a dimly lit room.

Looks like you've got trouble with your stubble at the end of the day! Learn how to give yourself a close and comfortable shave to make your face smooth for that evening pizza run. This event, the last of the day, runs at a time appropriate for its subject matter.

Wondering what to do with your seashell collection? Put it to good use! Learn how to construct marionettes using different shells including clam, oyster, and even conch! Please help stow the cushioned practice mats from the previous session in this room before starting.

Ancient tech is great! Learn how to repair the old workhorse of inter-company communications: the facsimile machine. Our local wizard Gandalf will teach you all you need to know. After a 2-hour break, Gandalf will then lead a slide presentation session.

Spice up your powerpoint presentations and make them leap off the screen (or at least look like it!) with this one simple trick. Your images will appear to actually hover!

Boost your combat skills to the next level by supervised sparring with partners. Your opponents are real, so we'll have first aid professionals standing by.
