

Potluck

GIRTS FOLKMANIS

CULINARY ACCIDENTS DEPARTMENT

In a unique culinary venture at sea, a group of friends planned a potluck where each would bring an item to contribute. They anticipated a grand feast symbolizing friendship and adventure.

However, as attendees revealed their contributions, an unforeseen twist emerged. Not a single item matched the intended list – every contribution, though well-intentioned, was slightly amiss.

In light of these unforeseen developments, one is left to ponder: what apt designation could be given to such a string of culinary miscalculations?

Things to bring

- Vessel that soup or salad is typically served in (4)
- Soft French cheese (4)
- Yellow vegetable with kernels (4)
- Dairy product to add to coffee (5)
- Vessel used for beverages (sometimes used as a trophy) (3)
- Herb often used in pickling (4)
- Frozen water cubes for drinks (3)
- Key ingredient in a margarita (4)
- Ingredient for dressing salads (3)
- Traditional Spanish rice specialty often containing seafood (6)
- Flat vessel used for cooking (or a prefix meaning all-inclusive) (3)
- Bell-shaped fruit (4)
- Flat vessel for serving food (5)
- Large serving tray (7)
- Vessel used for cooking (or for planting flowers in) (3)
- Hot, aromatic beverage (3)
- Plain beverage (5)
- Fermented grape drink (4)
- Frying vessel often used in Asian cuisine (3)

Contributions

- Nut from an oak tree (5)
- Long, pointed weapon (5)
- Creator of verses and rhymes (4)
- Tool for making holes (5)
- Person who takes your order and brings you your meal (6)
- Slang for being aware of social injustices (4)
- Sticky goo (5)
- Revolutionary power grab (4)
- Concise statement or summary (5)
- Small, inedible cubes with dots on them (4)
- Physical discomfort (4)
- Loud, frightened noise (6)
- Complaint in a high-pitched tone (5)
- Roof of the mouth involved in tasting (6)
- Medium for growing plants (4)
- Knee cap (7)
- Digestive system part after the stomach (5)
- A drop resulting from crying (4)
- Messy paint drips (8)
