

Sean Gugler invites you to a

Garden Party

Our gazebo has a different flower at each post; aren't they lovely? We've dug up some words to help you reveal their beauty. Fill the petals clockwise, two or three words per flower (some letters have been started for you). You will use each word exactly once.

TODAY'S ALMANAC

Sunrise: 0640
Sunset: 1831

02/B

03/C

01/A

BIAS
BOLD
CARE
CHIDE
CORNICE
CUSP
DANDER
DRAFT
EASY
FOOD

HAIR
LOTION
MAIN
MEAL
NATIONAL OIL
PROTON
REDO
RING
SECRET

*Our names they say
Shall start you right
At each a'pointed hour*

*If stumped you be
At what comes next
The brickwork hides a clue*

*With light of day
Or dark of night
In hearts of every flower*

*For you to see
In simple text
Why we depend on you*

